PRESS RELEASE

New conveyor roller catalog published by Interroll

Sant'Antonino, Switzerland/Wermelskirchen, Germany, December 20, 2017. Comprehensive, clear and indispensable, the new conveyor roller catalog from Interroll is now available for all intralogistics professionals to download online.

The catalog covers the complete range of rollers, conveyor elements, RollerDrive, controls and accessories that Interroll offers for intra-company logistics worldwide. These premium-quality key products enable system integrators and manufacturers to develop highly sophisticated material handling solutions for their customers.

The 282-page catalog features a clear and easy-to-read layout, informative photos and detailed technical product information. The most important planning information for creating material handling systems is also provided to help readers choose the right Interroll products for their needs. Readers can even use the product finder to take them to the exact roller models that are relevant for their intended applications. These features make the new catalog an indispensable tool for anyone in the material handling industry who values superior quality and fast delivery times.

The catalog is available now in PDF format in English and German. Printed catalogs will be available from mid-January; Chinese, French, Spanish and other language versions will follow in the first quarter of 2018.

You can find the new conveyor roller catalog, a personal order form for the printed version and detailed information about the range of rollers offered by Interroll at:
